EDITION

Hello Eagles,

We're already down to the final three weeks of the first quarter; time truly flies!

As mentioned in last week's message, one of the key updates this school year is our revised approach to test retakes. Students who score below 70% on an assessment are now required to retake the test to support their academic growth. In these cases, teachers may reach out directly to parents and guardians with more information.

To support this process, we've established a dedicated Testing Center and designated after-school time on Tuesdays and Thursdays for retakes. This provides students with the time, space, and resources they need to demonstrate mastery of the material.

Mark your calendars, our Fall Festival is almost here! Talent show auditions will take place September 15 - 17 in the B1 Media Center. For more details, please click the link below:
