EDITION

Good afternoon EDUPRIZE families,

First, I would like to extend an early Veteran's Day wish to all of those who have served (including my husband and Mrs. Yeargain's son who are both Marines). We are so thankful for your service and we look forward to celebrating YOU on Tuesday. Remember there is no school on 11/11 in observance of Veteran's Day.

Here are some reminders about upcoming events:

- The Gilbert Days Parade in two weeks on Saturday, November 22nd! You have until Wednesday 11/12 to let us know if you'd like to march with us in the parade. We will have lots of spots open so sign up here to join us! I'm eager to showcase our wonderful EDUPRIZE students and families! Our theme is: Out of This World and we will be passing out alien sock puppet kits to kids who will march with us.
- The annual food drive is happening now until November 18th. We are collecting Thanksgiving foods for families in need. An attached flyer in the newsletter gives specifics of what students (by grade level) are asked to bring. Last year, we fed over 85 families and I'd love to continue this tradition of sharing with families in need.
- The Gobbler Gallop is on Tuesday, November 25th. At this annual event, students in each grade level compete against each other in a race! Come cheer on your child and their classmates!
- On December 10th, we are happy to bring back our Books Before Bedtime event for kids in PreK-2nd grade. This will take place from 5:00-6:00 PM in Building 1. Invite a friend who may want to enroll at Eduprize next year! Kids will wear pajamas, hear stories, gets milk and cookies, and get a free book!

Thanks for joining us each time we cheer to 30 years of excellence in education during one of our community events!

Cheers to 30 years,
Heather Vehon-Manfredi
