Dear EDUPRIZE Parents,

What a fun week of zealous celebrations and we still have Cottage Fairs next week! Wax Museum for 5th grade was two grand nights of learning about people who have made a significant impact in history! We kept celebrating our students' reading hour accomplishments this week with Popsicles for kindergarteners who read 100 hours or more, Pancakes for K-6 readers who read 200 hours or more, and book fair gift certificates for 300 and 400 hour readers. These are some of the traditions that students look forward to each year, and Mrs. Deist and I loved celebrating alongside them!

We also celebrated our parent volunteers with a breakfast this morning in the media center. Whether you came in to volunteer in the classroom, went on a field trip, helped at an event, or graded papers at home, you helped our EDUPRIZE community thrive. A huge part of that support is our amazing PTO! Most of our events and celebrations would not be possible without the efforts of our EDUPRIZE PTO. They volunteer countless hours to ensure that students and families can attend events and activities that bring our school community closer. They plan and execute events like Fall Fest, Skateland Night, the Valentine Dance, Water Day, Pancakes and Popsicles with the Principal and so much more. This week, they gave gift cards to all teachers to get special end-of-year surprises for students - we have the best PTO around!

Next week, we have Cottage Fairs on both Tuesday and Wednesday night. Both nights will be packed full of accomplishments! PreK promotion next week and kinder promotions the week after. Next Friday, May 22, we will have our final assembly for the school year. We will celebrate student accomplishments, including academics, sports, clubs, Exceptional Eagles, Students of the Month, and a special 6th grade walk during the assembly to celebrate our 6th graders moving on to middle school. Come and join us and celebrate the end of an amazing school year!

Yearbooks will be delivered to students who pre-ordered them on Thursday of next week (5/21). We will have a very small number of yearbooks to sell at the B1 front desk for $60 starting on 5/26. It will be first-come, first-served on 5/26 until we are sold out.

Our final dates to plan for:

- 5/19 - Cottage Fair for AM & 4th, 6th reg day 🏠
- 5/20 - Cottage Fair for PM and 1st-3rd reg day 🏠
- 5/22 - Q4 Assembly, and PreK promotion 🎉
- 5/25 - Memorial Day - No School ❤️💙💜
- Week of 5/25 - Spirit Week 🦋
- 5/27 - Kindergarten Promotion 🎓
- 5/28 - Kindergarten Water Day 🍷
- 5/29 - Last day of school! 😊

Cheers to 30 years!
